4. Optionality of conferment

Apart from what has been specified for navigation data, the interested party may provide personal data in the request forms on the website, for example to request the sending of informative material, newsletters, or communications and/or answers to requests sent via the website. Failure to provide data will make it impossible to obtain the requested service. The provision of data is optional for sending communications and commercial offers. Any refusal will not affect the provision of other services. You may object to such processing at any time, even after consent has been given for commercial purposes, by sending a request to the Data Controller at info@trentinosviluppo.it.

5. Categories of recipients of personal data

Only persons authorised by the Data Controller may access, and thus become aware of, your data, limited to the data necessary to perform their duties.

Without prejudice to communications made in fulfilment of legal and contractual obligations, all data collected and processed may be communicated exclusively for the purposes specified above to

- Persons authorised by the Data Controller (collaborators, trainees and employees);
- Data processors and/or external collaborators of the Data Controller (e.g. legal, accounting and IT consultants, suppliers of services related to the website activity, etc.);
- Public and private parties to whom disclosure is required by law or regulation;
- Subjects carrying out activities functional to the execution of contracts or services requested by the Data Subject, who may in some cases process the data as autonomous Data Controllers.

6. Storage and transfer of personal data abroad

Data may be transferred abroad only if the Data Controller decides to make use of IT services (website, e-mail, cloud computing, e-mail direct marketing) managed by providers residing in countries outside the European Community or using servers located in foreign countries.

The Data Controller will only transfer personal data to recipients offering an adequate level of data protection. In such cases, this will be done on the basis of contractual clauses or contractual agreements ensuring protection in line with European standards, or on the basis of adequacy decisions on the recipient country.

7. Exercisable rights

In accordance with the provisions of Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, you may exercise the rights set out therein and in particular:

- Right of access - To obtain confirmation as to whether or not personal data relating to you are being processed and, if so, to receive information relating, in particular, to: the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data processed and the period of storage, the recipients to whom the data may be disclosed (Article 15, GDPR);

- Right of rectification - Obtain, without undue delay, the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning you and the integration of incomplete personal data (Article 16, GDPR);
- Right to erasure - Obtain, without undue delay, the erasure of personal data concerning you, in the cases provided for by the GDPR (Article 17, GDPR);
- Right of limitation - Obtain from the Data Controllers the limitation of processing, in the cases provided for by the GDPR (Article 18, GDPR);
- Right to portability - To receive, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, the personal data concerning you provided to the Data Controllers, as well as to obtain that they be transmitted to another Data Controller without hindrance, in the cases provided for by the GDPR (Article 20, GDPR);
- Right to object - Object to the processing of personal data relating to you, unless there are legitimate grounds for the Data Controller to continue the processing (Article 21, GDPR);
- Right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority - lodge a complaint with the Italian Data Protection Authority (www.garanteprivacy.it).

The user may exercise these rights by sending a request to info@trentinosviluppo.it.
